

Terms and conditions

The Galleria Borghese Membership card is valid for 12 months from the day of activation and entitles the holder to book 1 admission per day until the end of validity.

Admission to the museum is subject to prior booking through the usual channels (website and call centre). The Membership card is personal and allows access to the museum only to the cardholder. The staff in charge will verify the correspondence of the data.

Access to the museum only with the card and without having made a reservation will not be allowed.

The Membership card can be purchased online on the website of the Galleria Borghese by clicking BUY; at the museum ticket office located in the basement or through the call centre by calling 06 32810 (Monday - Friday 9:30 am - 6 pm).

The card purchased online or through the call centre must be picked up at the ticket office. Upon activation of the card, a code will be issued that will allow the visitor to make the subsequent reservations of the museum entrance on the day of the visit chosen by the visitor.

Types of cards:

- Regular Card (over 30 years old) € 60;
- You and Me Card € 45 each (cards cannot be sold separately);
- Young Card (ages 18-30) € 40.

To purchase the You and Me Card you will need to leave not only your name, surname and date of birth, but also the data of the other recipient.

Benefits:

- Free annual admission to the Galleria Borghese (with prior reservation)
- Exclusive preview visit to exhibitions on dedicated days. It will be the responsibility of the museum to get in touch with card holders and make known the chosen day
- Invitation to cultural events and initiatives. It will be the Museum's responsibility to get in touch with card holders and invite them to the events
